REPLY TO MOTION TO WITHDRAW
AND REQUEST HEARING ON SAID
MOTION.

16 COMES NOW plaintiff Parnell Colvin, and is requesting a hearing to the motion filed by his 17 attorney Mr. Daniel Marks, to withdraw from his case. Plaintiff Colvin, has been very involved and 18 cooperating with the whole process of this case. Plaintiff Colvin, has provided all requested 19 documentations replied to all emails participated in the discovery phase including depositions
20 of himself and defendants. Provided additional information to his attorneys to fully assist in 21 complete preparation of this case . Mr. Marks, was concerned that I had filed a motion to receive 22 email notifications so plaintiff Colvin, could read and follow his case.

1 At no time has plaintiff Colvin, filed anything into this case and has repeatly told Mr. Marks,
2 he only filed the motion to get notifications when something is filed. Also Colvin, cell phone screen
3 is cracked and did not allow him to use his and his phone was turned off for a short period of time.
4 Plaintiff Colvin, emailed his attorneys and informed them his phone was not working and the best
5 way to contact him was through email. colvin, has resposned to all emails and this was his only
6 way to communicate with his other attorney. Also his doctors , family and friends were all told that 7 the best way to contact him was through was via email.
8

9
10 Mr. Marks, was not the only person that was asked to contact Colvin, via email the general
11 counsel for the National Labor Relation Board. Colvin, has been committed to this case from day
12 one to hold the defendants accountable for thier conduct. If would be very hard for Colvin, to find
13 another attorney at this stage of the proceedings to represent Colvin, as most attorneys dont like 14 to undue and correct mistakes made by prior attorneys. Colvin, case has progressed so far into 15 litigation it would be very difficult for any attorney to step in and take over this case which will 16 cause a great deal of harm to plaintiff.

19 Plaintiff, Colvin, has been very much dedicated and committed to this case from the start
20 and is requesting the court to hold a hearing plaintiff has numerous emails that will show he has 21 responded to all requests made by Mr. Marks. Colvin, communicated with everybody through 22 email because his phone is broke and would not let him use it but has advised everyone to 23 please contact via email and he will respond to all and he has. Colvin, has reached out to 24 Mr. Marks, via email to ask him to remain on his case to date he was not received an response.

1 Plaintiff Colvin, is requesting the court to holf an hearing so he can produce his correspondace
2 to the court to show he has always responded to his attorneys it was not through phone but
3 via email. Colvin, will be harmed if the court grants the motion to withdraw as it will be almost 4 impossible for find another attorney at this stage. Colvin, believes he has always showed and 5 demostrated courtesy and professionalism from the moment Mr. Marks, became his attorney.
6

7 Plaintiff Colvin, would like to thank the court for its consideration in this matter.
